

Kyla Christoffer...

is a 24 year old photographer living in downtown Ottawa, Canada. She is a college graduate from a photography program.

Kyla loves to photograph anything and everything, from events to people to still life. Over the past year, she has begun doing photo shoots of local bands, live and posed shots for them to promote themselves. Her favorite kind of photography is portraits— her friends, couples, and family members. Kyla uses with a manual 35mm film camera and small flash. She also takes pictures with a medium format “holga” camera for artsy shots. She is saving up to buy a 35mm digital.
